

A very warm invitation to

Play, Imagination & Literacy • Nelson

a workshop with Pennie Brownlee

Mastering literacy is a complex undertaking dependent on the complex structure of the human brain.

In this workshop we explore:

- how play constructs the required neural foundations for abstract symbolic tasks like reading, writing and mathematics
- the pivotal role of imagination as the driver of intellect
- the sequence of skills prerequisite to decoding and decoding symbols (reading, writing and mathematics)
- ways to prepare environments for children which maximise their intellect and facilitate preparedness for higher brain capabilities.

- Sunday 18th June, from 9 am to 3.30 pm
- Fee $155 - includes morning tea & lunch
- At Fairfield House, 48 Van Diemen Street, Nelson.
